Villa vi is situated on the northeastern part of Ithaca, occupying a secluded sequestered plot on the edge of Kurt's picturesque bay. Hidden in dense vegetation and with no Houses around the property, this villa enjoys absolute privacy and a serene ambience with magnificent panoramic views.

Villa vi is keenly fully restructured, offering overall great modern-standard accommodation. The structure itself maintains an lonian profile, but the villa's exterior and all its living spaces are predominantly white, but are highlighted by bright- coloured artwork and stylish designer furniture. Spacious seaweed verandas with comfortable plaided couches and a large pool-area with a shaded dining and lounging area are adding a variety of alfresco options to the overall great living experience of this residence.

Welcome to the ICOMIA Superyacht Refit Group partnering the resources of ICOMIA, the leisure marine industry's international trade association, with the leading companies in the refitting of superyachts.

When considering a refit for your superyacht, you will seek certainty in high quality of service, project management and workmanship; you require your yacht to be secure while in refit and you wish to be assured that all work will meet the strictest environmental guidelines. The ICOMIA Superyacht Refit Group members provide you with that certainty.

A unique Code of Practice ensures our yard members comply with our core values of good customer relationships, certainty, performance, client confidence and risk protection. In addition to the Code of Practice, the ICOMIA Superyacht Refit Group offers its clients a standard framework contract that has been developed by prominent international marine lawyers and currently is in use in conjunction with many of the top yacht management companies. The continuation of the Code of Practice and the Superyacht refit contract gives you a certainty and confidence that is only available with an ICOMIA Superyacht Refit Yard Member.

This brochure informs you what benefits contracting an ICOMIA Superyacht Refit Group member will give you. The full membership is listed at the back of the brochure with contact details. We look forward to hearing from you.

BALANCE IS.

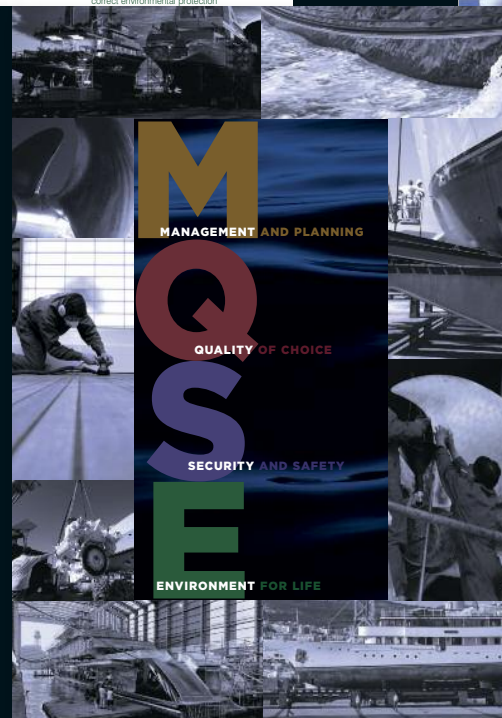

The need to look after our environment is becoming more and more important. Superyacht cruising grounds are often in the most exotic destinations, and often the most threatened by pollution. Our member yards must adhere closely to the strictest waste management and environmental protection guidelines. Each must facilitate or be equipped for waste management and have the correct environmental protection

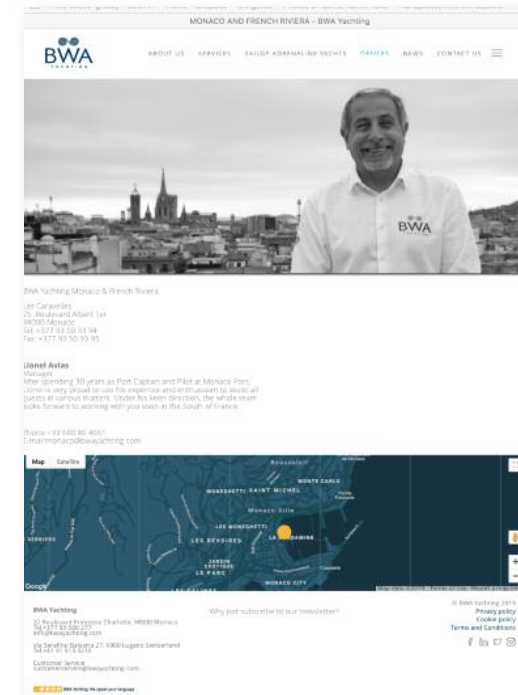

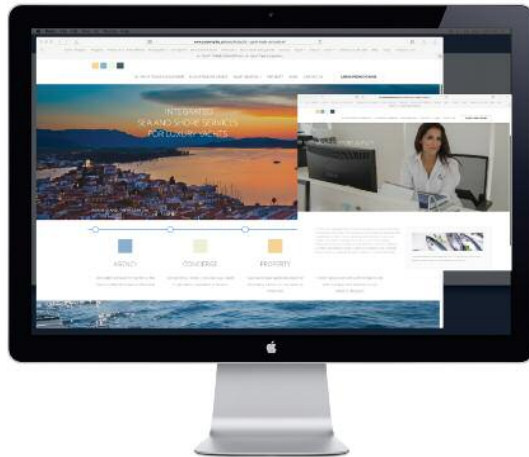

LIFE

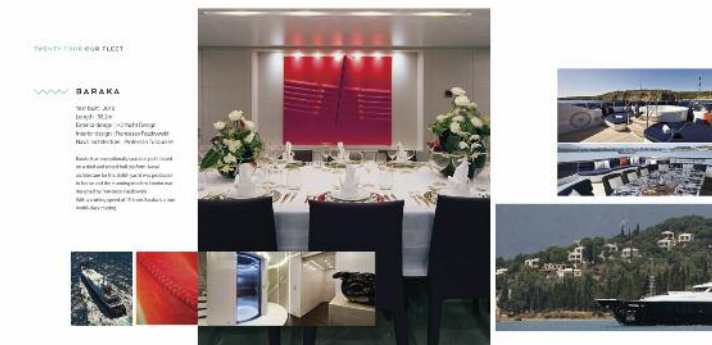

As they say is for living. And most yacht owners will say they derive their greatest pleasures in life from sailing their yachts. When entrusted into the hands of one of our members for a refit or repair, then you know that your pride and joy will be well looked after and back in perfect condition in the shortest possible time, with the minimum possible fuss and to the best standards possible.

what's good for you? guide to a great fit

apple
Look out for tummy control, this will smooth and support the tummy area. Detail on the bust will focus attention away from the tummy whilst an empire line will elongate the silhouette and of your waist. Vertical details lengthen the body and provide a slimming effect.

Aim to have the detail, detail and design focusing on the chest and away from the hips. Achieve a narrower look - opt for control fabrics with stretch and natural draping. Asymmetrical details will avoid a focus on unwanted areas.

hourglass
Be bold and boost those curves! Enhance your shape with added features such as our support and control panels. An empire line will further enhance your natural shape.

rectangle
Details on the waist will create the illusion of curves. Smoother your shape with subtle fabrics such as padded cups and control panels. Look out for bust detail and prints, you can get away with it so go for it!

triangle
Aim to have the detail on the lower half focusing attention away from the chest. Embrace your assets with sweetheart necklines. Look for suits with hidden support features such as supported, underlined and small lines.

What leg height is best for you?
Suits vary in leg height from low to medium to high cut with also a shorts style on some suits. See the symbols with the suits on the product pages.

Suit design
Suits also have varying lengths, with some featuring a long front or full front being for increased coverage. See the symbols with the suits on the product pages.
